Re: FPPC Advice No. A-86-077

Dear Mr. Gill:

This letter is a follow-up to our conversation and to your letter dated February 18, 1986. You asked if an official who has an interest in a limited partnership is required to report on his or her Statement of Economic Interests the interests held by the general partner or other limited partners. The official is required to report only his or her own investment interests and is not required to report the name(s) of the general partner or limited partner or their financial interests.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me at (916) 322-5662.

Sincerely,

Alice Hughes

Dear Ms. Hughes:

Please confirm my understanding that one who has an interest in a limited partnership consisting of a general partner and three limited partners, need only report the interest held and need not report the interest of the general partner or the limited partners.

Very truly yours,

LAURENCE P. GILL
